

Z Kroniki

Międzynarodowego Towarzystwa Kryminologicznego

V International Course of Victimology – Intrafamily Violence, Las Palma of the Gran Canary Islands, Spain, April 9–12, 1996

The A.I.C.L.F. (International Association of Criminologists using the French Language) organized its fifth meeting in Athens, May 16 to 18, 1996. Theme „Criminology Faces a Crisis of Values and Human Rights”

The 52nd International Course in Criminology was held at the University of Macau during the first week of October, 1996, focused on regional aspects of organized crime. It provided the first regional taste of the 12th World Congress of the international Society of Criminology in Seoul (August 23–28, 1998). This meeting will be followed, in 1997, by two other meetings in Asia.

The 53rd International Course of Criminology , took place in Las Palma, of the Grand Canary Islands, November 4–8, 1996

The 13th International Congress of Social Defence to be held in Lecce (Italy), November 28–30, 1996. Theme – public defense, corruption and protection of public administration and independence of the courts

International Conference „Restorative Justice for Juveniles – Potentialities”, Risks and Problems for Research, to be held in Leuven (Belgium), May 12–14, 1997

The 12th International Congress in Criminology – will take place in Seoul, Korea from August 24 to 29, 1998 with the general theme: Crime and Justice in a Changing World – Asian and Global Perspectives.